Defenders Will Fall Back on Namur If Kaiser's Troops Capture City.

Reports from France Indicate Garrison May Soon Be Obligated to Withdraw—Individual Feats of Gallantry Characterize Terrific Clash Which Has Halted the Advance of the Imperial Army.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

BRUSSELS, Aug. 6.—(11:50 p.m.)—The attack on Liege yesterday was executed by one German army corps, while the Belgian force consisted of a mixed brigade supported by the artillery of the city.

The battle was fought along a wide front and partially in the open fields. The Belgian troops carried out several attacks during the day, but they were repulsed and suffered severe losses in dead and wounded.

The Belgian army was brilliantly fulfilling its task of delaying the German advance and the campaign in Belgium would be hindered by the obstinate stand of the Belgians.

In the attack on Ft. Parnon, northeast of the city, the Belgians permitted the Germans to draw almost to the walls of the fortress. Then they turned loose their guns and the slaughter is reported to have been appalling.

Under the terrific fire and from the other fort the Germans were forced to retire all along the line. A detachment of Uhlans penetrated the city Wednesday night with the intention, it is said, of capturing high officials. They had actually reached the building where the officials had quarters when they were surprised and all of them killed.

The shells of the Germans today breached the walls of two of the fortresses, which were captured. From the other forts, however, the Belgians continued to pour a deadly rain of shot and shell into the ranks of the advancing Germans.

Despite the heroic resistance of the Belgians, it was felt in Brussels to-night that the invaders, by reason of their great strength, could not much longer be denied, and that ultimately they must gain the city of Liege, whence they are expected to press onward to Namur in their effort to cross Belgium to the French frontier.

At Namur, which is strongly fortified, it is asserted that resistance will be made, but that Liege will be encountered by the Germans.

INVADERS MEET FIERCE RESISTANCE

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

PARIS, Aug. 6, 4:50 p.m.—Official announcement is made that the battle continues to rage around Liege this afternoon. The German shell fire has reduced two of the Liege forts, but the Belgians continue to resist with untiring energy.

The Germans were able to use their light siege guns against the forts of Liege, which are thirty years old. Two Parliament in Deadly Earnest Goes to Work to Provide Sinews for Lord Kitchener, Who Is in Supreme Control of Land Forces—Old Feuds Are Buried—News of Sinking of Cruiser Amphion Is Received.

LONDON, Aug. 6, 11:50 p.m.—The passage of a war budget for $500,000,000 in the House of Commons today without a dissenting voice and the granting of an army increase of 500,000 men in accordance with the plans of Lord Kitchener, the new Minister of War, shows that Great Britain is in deadly earnest.

A call to arms issued by the War Office tonight says an addition of 100,000 men to the regular army is needed immediately and that "Lord Kitchener is confident this appeal will at once be responded to by all who have the safety of our empire at heart."

The terms of service for the new men is to be three years, or until the war is ended. The age of enlistment will be between 19 and 30.

The naval estimates provide for 67,000 additional officers and men, which will make the navy's strength 218,000 men.

There are no illusions in England that the war is certain to be a swift and decisive one. The people are settled down for a long and exhaustive struggle.

The admiralty notified the public tonight that the first news from the navy might not be good news. Swift action of the navy is being taken to ensure that the cruiser Amphion had been sunk by a mine with a loss of an officer and 130 men—Great Britain's first sacrifice to the war.

RUN RISK IN NORTH SEA.

It is considered that British ships in the North Sea are running greater risks, during the first days of the war, than the German ships. The royal navy shares with the homes of its many subjects the suspense of waiting for news of the fate of the different units of the fleet.

There was a dramatic incident in the House of Commons last night when Lord Charles Beresford and Winston Spencer Churchill, the First Lord of the Admiralty, were buried. Admiral Beresford shook hands with the First Lord and said:

been sunk by contact with a mine, with the loss of more than 100 men. Emperor William of Germany, in an order to the army and navy, called upon all Germans capable of bearing arms to fight for the Fatherland.

The British Prime Minister in the House of Commons said for an additional war appropriation of $500,000,000, and any army increase of 500,000 men, both of which requests were approved by the House.

The Russian cavalry, endeavoring to enter East Prussia, has been driven back by the German frontier guards. Tien-tsin dispatch says the Russian cruiser Askold and the German cruiser Emden, in an engagement off Wei Hai Wei, have both been sunk.

UHLAN FORCE GETS INTO CITY.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

LIEGE (Via London) Aug. 6.—A force of German Uhlans made a brilliantly courageous but fatal attempt to capture the Belgian general staff here during last night. The Belgian troops swooped down on them and annihilated all.

The Uhlans had actually penetrated the city as far as the Rue Sainte Foi where the Belgian headquarters had been established, when the Belgian soldiers came on the scene.

A renewal of the German attack in the city was expected today. The Belgian artillery was incessant since before midnight all around Liege. German shells wrecked and set fire to many houses in the suburb Bressoux. The Governor has issued this proclamation:

"Germany has invaded Belgium after an ultimatum which was an outrage. Belgium has proudly taken up the gauntlet and the army will do its duty."

TREASURE CRUISER SAILS WITH AMERICAN MILLIONS

Relief for Stranded Tourists in Europe Now on the Way.

Second Shipment Will Likely Be Sent in Short Time on the North Carolina—Rapid Progress Is Reported from London in Straightening Out the Tangle Caused by War.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

NEW YORK, Aug. 6.—The armored cruiser Tennessee, converted for the time into a treasure ship, left port at 9:45 o'clock tonight to carry millions in gold to the many thousands of Americans who are in want in European countries.

All day long the vaults of the sub-treasury and banks here gave up the precious metal consigned to the relief of those whom the United States government seeks to aid.

Revenue cutters plied back and forth between the Tennessee, swinging with the tide off Tompkinsville, and the foot of Wall street, and when the cruiser nosed out toward sea in the darkness she had on board about $4,000,000 in gold—$3,000,000 from the Bankers' Trust Company, $2,750,000 appropriated by Congress, and about $200,000 entrusted to the paymaster's care by personal friends of individuals abroad.

Of the latter sum, nearly $100,000 was received to-day representing ninety-three deposits.

More such funds are expected to be placed with the treasury authorities here and it was regarded as likely that a second shipment of gold would be sent, probably on the cruiser North Carolina.

The Tennessee's gold goes as a bulk lot of government money. The individual depositors' names are not mentioned, but the delivery of the gold to individual drawers who have orders from their American shippers will be made. This plan, directed by the War Department, is believed to be in financial circles here, is to prevent any question of American violation of neutrality in carrying individual deposits abroad. The gold was insured against marine risk. The rate was not announced.

MONEY HELD BACK.

Two million dollars intended as part of the Tennessee's money cargo, did not go. Bankers arranged that it be held here against money that may be drawn by the French Ambassador in Washington for the current needs of his government. The French government has deposited with J. P. Morgan & Co. through their Paris house, Messrs. Morgan, Harle & Co., $3,000,000 francs (about $400,000) which has been placed to the credit of the French government. Explaining this arrangement, J. P. Morgan & Co. in a statement said:

"This is considered a significant and encouraging sign as evidencing a movement on the part of foreign governments to establish credits in the United States."

Morgan, Harle & Co. have arranged that a large portion of the $4,000,000 shall be payable in gold in order to provide for the wants of travelers in Paris, this arrangement to be carried out in connection with the group of bankers which is forwarding gold to London by the Tennessee for the same purpose.

Prominent bankers here expressed the opinion that the ruling of Secretary Daniels to the effect that only gold in the form of banknotes will be accepted by the Tennessee will add to the difficulty of distribution. They pointed out that representatives of banks must get to Europe to carry out the instructions of their principals and that any delay in their arrival will cause complications.

The Tennessee is a comparatively slow cruiser. It is believed it will be ten or twelve days before she reaches Europe. Bankers' representatives interested in the Tennessee's shipments are planning to sail on the American liner St. Paul for Liverpool tomorrow, hoping to make connections with the gold cruiser at some British port.

Ident Wilson issued an executive order constituting a board of relief to consist of the Secretaries of State, Treasury and Navy, which will have general charge of the distribution of the $2,500,000 authorized by Congress. Secretary McAdoo, chairman of this board, will establish agencies in England and on the continent, and will provide means for making available funds sent to America. Thousands of dollars were deposited at the Treasury today to be sent abroad and arrangements are being made to turn these sums over to the proper parties when the government gold ships reach Europe. Further deposits will be handled through cable messages.

The State Department announced tonight that it had no information as to the whereabouts of the American ship, the Albatross, which was reported to have been captured by the Germans. The department is making every effort to locate the ship and to secure its release.

Many are relieved. "It is believed," said the department's statement, "that in the majority of cases the American ships are already being made where the necessary temporary financial arrangements that may have arisen can be relieved."

Hundreds of telegrams and letters flooded the department today from anxious friends. The department will use every means in its power to communicate with those about whom inquiry has been made, and report to the inquiries here.

Six transports may prove enough, but negotiations are in progress for ships owned by foreign nations. The State Department will designate ports of call for the vessels. American Ambassadors and Ministers will make prompt arrangements for transportation from their points to these ports.

Secretary Bryan was encouraged today by word that the Bank of England would not suspend gold payments.

BANK OF ENGLAND NEWS.
He received this message from Secretary Barclay, in charge of the Bank of England, today.

The Chancellor of the Exchequer thinks it is not necessary for the Bank of England to suspend payments in gold; there is no failure of credit. Bankers consider themselves able to resume the ordinary course of business tomorrow.

This is taken to mean that Americans in England who hold travelers' checks, letters of credit or other money certificates will find them immediately cashed.

Mr. Bryan received word from St. Petersburg that only about 200 Americans were in that city. Americans throughout the Russian empire will be brought to the capital and sent to some neighboring neutral nation, probably Sweden. Ambassador Herrick at Paris informed the department that sufficient funds are now on hand here to care for the local necessities of Americans. Their transportation out of France and across the Atlantic is still the care of this government.

MORE GOLD MAY GO.
The cruiser Tennessee sailed from New York tonight with her treasure store of gold. Orders were issued at Boston to sail in a few days with such gold as is thought advisable to be sent later.

Red Cross headquarters announced tonight that prompt response have been received from Governors, Mayors and presidents of commercial organizations to the appeal for European war relief funds. Officials pressed the hope that a sum sufficient to charter a big ship and send hospital units to the countries involved, will be raised within a short time.

The Red Cross received a telegram today from Minneapolis. Associated Presses complaining that the call for European reservists and the donation of many married men without their families had resulted in leaving numerous charges on the American people.

CONTRABAND OF WAR
COVERS A WIDE SCOPE

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Aug. 6.—Great Britain's contraband of war proclamation was cabled to the State Department today by Ambassador Page. It places arms, ammunition and all distinctly military supplies on the list of "absolute" contraband and designated food, grain, money, horses and general supplies as "conditional" contraband. Everything under the latter head becomes subject to seizure when intended for the use of a power with which Great Britain is at war. The proclamation follows the usual lines and those issued by other powers involved in war probably will be virtually identical.

- 2.—Projectiles, charges and cartridges of all kinds and their distinctive component parts.
- 3.—Powder and explosives, especially prepared for use in war.

- 8.—Articles of camp equipment and their distinctive component parts.
- 9.—Armor plates.

- 11.—Aeroplanes, airships, balloons and aircraft of all kinds and their component parts together with accessories and articles recognizable for use in connection with balloons and aircraft.
- 12.—Implements and apparatus designed exclusively for the manufacture of munitions of war, for the manufacture or repair of arms or war material for use on land and sea.

The following will be treated as conditional contraband of war:

- 1.—Foodstuffs.
- 2.—Forage and grain suitable for feeding animals.
- 3.—Clothing, fabrics for clothing and boots and shoes suitable for use in war.
- 4.—Gold and silver in coin, bullion or paper money.

BERLIN (via London) Aug. 6.—

The Emperor has issued an order to the German army and navy, in which he says:

"After forty-three years of peace, I call upon all Germans capable of bearing arms. We have to defend our most sacred possessions in fatherland and home against the reckless assault of enemies on all sides of us."

"That means hard fighting. I am confident that the ancient warlike spirit still lives in the German people—that powerful, warlike spirit which attacks the enemy wherever it finds him, regardless of cost, and which in the past has been the dread and terror of our enemies."

"I have confidence in you, German soldiers—in each and all of you. An ardent, indomitable will for victory is living in each and all of you. I know, if needed, each and all of you would die like heroes."

Ambassador on Departure from Great Britain Expresses Appreciation for Courtesy Shown Him.

LONDON, Aug. 6, 1:15 p.m.—The German Ambassador at London, Prince Lichnowsky, who left England today, addressed a telegram to the English government, expressing his thanks for the "great courtesy shown to us during our journey."

A Berlin dispatch says that before the departure of the British Ambassador from the German capital Emperor William sent an aide de camp to express the regret of His Majesty because of the excesses committed against the British Embassy. Sir Edward Goschen, in reply, said he was thankful for the solicitude shown him by the German government.

Advices have been received here stating that Sir William Edward Goschen, British Ambassador at Berlin, and his staff have arrived in Denmark.

The French Embassy in London was advised tonight that the Austrian Ambassador at St. Petersburg has asked for his passport, Austria-Hungary regarding herself in a state of war with Russia.

"GOD SAVE GERMANY."

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

HAMBURG (Eng.) Aug. 6, 5:20 p.m.—When the German Ambassador and his suite numbering 100 persons arrived here this afternoon a contingent of the rifle brigade received them and presented arms. The Ambassador in reply to the honor raised his hat. A young German in the crowd shouted "God save Germany!" There was no disturbance.

Mrs. Wilson Is Dead.

Mr. Wilson's sons-in-law, and Mr. Tumulty, his secretary.

Both houses of Congress adjourned when Mrs. Wilson's death was announced, and for a brief time the whole of the government practically stopped while every one paid respect to the loss of the President.

HOPE IS GIVEN UP.

The beginning of the end came at 10 o'clock this morning, when Dr. E. P. Davis of Philadelphia, who had been called in for consultation, realized that Mrs. Wilson's face blanched and her breathing grew irregular.

He took the President into the Red Room of the White House and there, in a broken voice, told him the truth. Mrs. Wilson's face blanched and he bore the shock well. He was informed that the end was only a question of hours.

From that time on, the President and his daughters remained constantly at Mrs. Wilson's bedside. The President held his wife's hand and wept. His three daughters grouped near by. Until she became unconscious Mrs. Wilson frequently nodded to one of the daughters and smiled.

During the day Mrs. Wilson spoke to Dr. Grayson about the President, whose health she thought more about than she did of her own.

HER LAST WORDS.

"Promise me," she whispered faintly, "that if I go you will take care of my husband. He is a fine man and he needs your help."

It was the same touch of devotion which she had so many times repeated—her constant anxiety having been that the President might not worry about her or be disturbed in his official tasks.

The President returned to the sick room from the last conference with the doctor, his three daughters leaning on his arm.

Francis Bowdoin Sayre, Secretary of the Interior, and Secretary McAdoo and Secretary Tumulty stayed outside the door. Mrs. Wilson lapsed into unconsciousness, but rallied. By 1 o'clock she began to sink rapidly. She still could recognize those about her, however, and looked cheerfully toward them with the same sweet smile that will linger long in the memory of the many who knew her. It was a characteristic expression of sweetness, which officials and their families as well as people in the slums whom she had befriended had learned to love.

At 2 o'clock Mrs. Wilson was still conscious, but her strength had almost disappeared. She sank into the sleep of unconsciousness from which she never awoke. For three hours the President and his three daughters gazed longingly into her eyes in the hope that she might speak to them again, but she could not.

The sun was casting its long shadows from the Potomac to the south grounds, coloring the fountain, garden and elms. There was a hushed stillness in the upper apartments. All eyes were turned toward the southwest corner of the house.

DEATH COMES AT FIVE.

Just at the hour of five, death came. The President and his daughters were in tears. Secretary Tumulty walked slowly to the Executive office, his head bowed. Quietly he announced to the correspondents that the end had come.

A pall of gloom settled over the Executive mansion and the offices. Presently Dr. Grayson, his face haggard and worn from day and night vigil, came to the offices. There was an impressive silence everywhere.

FELL LAST WINTER.

Prof. Stockton Axson, his only brother, was en route East from Oregon on a Union Pacific train and was reached by telegram at Pendleton, Or., with the news. Members of the Supreme Court and members of the diplomatic corps telephoned their condolences and sent cards. From many humble homes came flowers. Mrs. Wilson had many friends in the slums and city generally in her endeavors to help the friendless and poverty-stricken.

Late Mistress of the White House.

Mrs. Woodrow Wilson,
Wife of the President, who died yesterday in Washington after a fight for life lasting for months against a complication of diseases.

but in the meantime kidney trouble set in and she gradually grew weaker.

About two months ago her condition began to grow serious and two weeks ago Dr. Grayson became alarmed. Nurse specialists were called in and trained nurses were kept in constant attendance. She continued to grow worse, however, until serious sinking spells came on Monday and Tuesday.

Mrs. Wilson was 50 years old, and when she came to the White House was in robust health. Always a home lover, she nevertheless immediately assumed the arduous duties of a President's wife.

With her help he wrote his books and on her judgment he relied. Her devotion to him was absolute and she was known to the family intimately, was of remarkable depth. Her husband was of him, was married and Mrs. Margaret Wilson, aside and told them of their mother's condition.

Until then they had thought there was a chance for recovery.

From that time on, the President and his daughters remained constantly at Mrs. Wilson's bedside. The President held his wife's hand and wept. His three daughters grouped near by. Until she became unconscious Mrs. Wilson frequently nodded to one of the daughters and smiled.

The Cunarder liner Essex, which had been ordered to convey the cable, arrived safely.

The ship to New York was too risky for British vessels, as it was believed that the German navy would attempt to intercept it.

The Mauretania, which had been warned by the Admiralty not to attempt the voyage, arrived safely.

Signs of Activity.

PEKING, Aug. 6.—China today proclaimed her neutrality in connection with the European conflict.

The work of fortifying the German possession of Tsingtau continued today, and the authorities there added to their armament of previous days.

Many Chinese have been affected already and are withdrawing their money from the banks controlled by Europeans.

European and American tourists are experiencing great difficulties, owing to the closing of the trans-Siberian railway and restriction of the steamship services.

Pains Around the Heart

When the action of the stomach is weakened by debility or defective nerve force the food is retained until it ferments. Gas forms and presses on the other organs, particularly the heart, the pains in that region often causing a fear of heart trouble. Organic heart disease rarely causes pain around the heart and when this symptom is noted you should try toning up your digestion before giving way to needless alarm.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a tonic that directly affects the organs of digestion. They supply to the stomach the rich, red blood without which normal digestion is impossible. They awaken into activity the gastric glands and strengthen the muscles of the stomach and give the nerve force necessary to proper digestion and assimilation. With this blood and weak nerves it is impossible to avoid stomach trouble. Build up the blood and strengthen the nerves and note the increased appetite, the comfortable feeling after eating and the improvement in health and vigor.

Two books, "Building Up the Blood" and "What to Eat and How to Eat," will be sent free on request by the Dr. Williams' Medical Institute, Schenectady, N. Y. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are for sale in every drug store.

Owners of Seven Vessels on Pacific Coast Offer Use of Their Craft on Atlantic Side.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 7.—Seven vessels plying in the coastwise trade of the Pacific are available for government use in the Atlantic, according to information filed today with the collector of the port, U. S. Davis.

Shipping men do not believe that any of them would be requisitioned. They are not believed to be of the type or capacity desired and information from Washington today was to the same effect.

San Francisco officers of the principal companies which do possess ships of a desirable type begged the question of the port, U. S. Davis.

The Pacific Mail and the Pacific Coast Navigation companies all referred inquiries to their main offices in New York.

Those vessels whose owners did volunteer their services are the California (Harvey) Edgar, J. Vance, George W. Fenwick and Gen. Hubbard (Nind Lumber Company) John H. Hooper (Sudden-Christensen Company) and two unnamed tankers of the Associated Oil Company.

KOENIGIN LUISE SUNK BY BRITISH.

LONDON, Aug. 6, 4:50 p.m.—The British torpedo boat destroyer Lance was the hero of the first naval engagement in the present war, sinking the Hamburg-American line steamer Koenigin Luise, which had been fitted out as a mine layer.

The Lance fired only four shots. The first destroyed the bridge of the steamer, the third and fourth tore away the stern and the Koenigin Luise sank in six minutes.

The Lance rescued twenty-eight of the German crew. Several were wounded. Two of them each lost an arm and four others each had a leg injured. None of the Lance's crew was injured.

The Koenigin Luise was caught laying mines some sixty miles from Harwich.

English Government Plans Measures of Relief.

Road Building Upon Large Scale Is Proposed.

Americans Asked to Help the Destitute Poor.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND L. P.]

LONDON, AUG. 6.—(11:10 p.m.)—Plans to prevent unemployment through the war and for the systematic relief of distress are being considered on a large scale.

Instead of economizing on public works in the interest of military expenditures, the British government has adopted the policy of greatly increasing government employment to provide for those who will lose their work through the shutting down of factories. Road-building will be one of the principal employments, and the board for the development of roads has a fund of several million pounds which it will spend.

The board has announced an appeal tonight for a national relief fund, of which he will be chairman. The Queen has added an appeal to the women of the country to contribute.

The building trades strike, which has kept so long the country from being settled today, and a truce has been declared in the marine engineering strike, which began in June.

The London Chamber of Commerce has agreed that there shall be no immediate increase in the price of breadstuffs. The price of wheat is at a record low. All contracts for grain, which were made before the war, at the original prices, are being honored, although the crops have been partly harvested, larger than usual. The potato crop also is large, and there will be no need of importation.

At the same time, the prices of unhilled beefs have been raised about 10 cents a pound. There is a two-thirds increase in the cost of lamb.

The big department stores were crowded today by women, many of whom were buying necessities and provisions, but the dry goods, furnishings and other departments were deserted. A similar condition prevailed in the smaller shops.

Meat, sugar and rice have gone up about 10 per cent.

The labor papers are already demanding that the government prepare measures to take charge of the food supply in case of need, and in the interest of the war effort. The demand is not more difficult than commandeering motors and horses, which has been done.

The wholesale price of petrol has not been increased, but the rush of motorists has induced the authorities to charge as much as they can get. The government has placed an embargo on the sale of the finest grades of petrol, which are being retained for the aeroplane service.

The American Society, which always has been active in caring for distressed Americans, has formed a special committee to disburse a benevolent fund which has been purchased and asked from Americans for the destitute. The society also has asked for a loan fund for Americans tempted to leave the country to find work, and to repay the loans after they reach home. Among this class of Americans are many school teachers and other who have been persecuted on a close margin and are now without funds. The American Consul in the European countries has issued a notice asking for information regarding the whereabouts of those whom they are addressed.

The German government has instructed its diplomatic representatives in the European countries to request the governments to which they are accredited for moderate loans from the governments to send home stranded British subjects.

There are still thousands of travelers not accounted for. The position of the British government is becoming the greatest anxiety. There are fewer in Austria and the Austrians are spreading the rumor that the British are the Germans.

While some of those who have returned from Germany tell stories of ill-treatment, the majority of those returning saying they received great courtesy in all places.

Members of the House of Commons who had been proposed to the Foreign Office policy of foreign ententes and who have been opposed in the old policy of isolation have formed a committee to relieve distress and for the purpose of using the committee to bring the matter to a termination, but to do nothing to embarrass the government.

The sailings of the Atlantic transatlantic liner Moltke on Saturday from the White Star liner Cyrrus Tuesday from London and Liverpool, and the German liner Moltke from London, have been suspended. The Americans booked by the Holland-American liner Nieuw Amsterdam must go to Holland to embark. The German liner Moltke has been suspended service to Holland and possibly suspend it entirely.

END WORD TO GERMANS.

SHORTTRIDGE TO COME TODAY.

Vinding Up Single-Handed Work in Southland.

Makes a Spectacular Contest for Nomination.

Foresters Lease Theater, Will Honor Fredericks.

Matching his thirty years of loyal service to the Republican party against the seventeen years of legislative record held by Congressman Knowland, Hon. Samuel M. Shortridge will come to Los Angeles this morning to complete his campaign in Southern California for the Republican nomination for United States Senator.

No contest in the primary campaign as engaged the attention of Republicans so fully as has the Senatorial race between Mr. Shortridge and Congressman Knowland, on the one hand, and the head of the ticket, which has been won by a landslide, on the other. The Senatorial contest in the Republican party has developed two distinctive styles of campaigning. Congressman Knowland, on the one hand, as established headquarters in many parts of the State, has employed a corps of publicists and is generally regarded as the most liberal spender of all the Republican candidates. He is a man of wealth and asserts that he has adopted politics as a profession, and is proud of it. He has made a complete campaign of the State and has doubled over a great deal of round.

SHORTTRIDGE IS ALONE. For the most part Mr. Shortridge is campaigning alone. His travels about the State show a contrast with the methods followed by his opponent. Notwithstanding the great change that has come over our political system, Mr. Shortridge is content to travel practically unaccompanied, as no press agent to herald his arrival, to drum the publicity line about his campaign. He has received, nor to add out itineraries.

Instead, he has relied upon his own efforts, has refused offers of financial support, and he has needed the money for campaigning operations has done without campaign managers, campaign secretaries, campaign committees and press agents and headquarters.

As an orator, he has no equal in his campaign, and the announcement that Sam Shortridge is going to speak always draws a large audience. He has made it plain to his audiences that the work of a United States Senator is hard work; that it requires initiative, courage and the power of speech wherever to make the demand.

AT REPUBLICAN LEAGUE. He will be giving his final speaking tour here tonight at a meeting of the Republican League in Eagles Hall. He will also speak tonight at Normandie Hall, and at Arlington. Tomorrow he will be the chief speaker at the Iowa picnic at Long Beach. He will speak at three places tomorrow evening.

Other speakers at the meeting of the Republican League tonight will be D. R. W. Robinson, of the Tenth, and Dudley W. Robinson of the Ninth, Republican candidates for Congress, and Ed L. Head, Republican candidate for State Treasurer.

An open-air meeting was held last night at The Palms. The speakers were Capt. H. Z. Osborne, Republican candidate for Congress in the Tenth District; W. J. Ford, candidate for District Attorney; Harry Brooks, Republican Senatorial candidate from the Thirty-fourth District; John C. Cline, candidate for Sheriff, and others.

A joint meeting was held last night at Conaty Hall by Republicans of the sixteenth, sixteenth and sixteenth assemblies. The speakers were Mr. Ford, F. C. Roberts, Republican candidate for Congress in the Tenth District; W. J. Ford, Republican candidate for District Attorney; Harry Brooks, Republican Senatorial candidate from the Thirty-fourth District; John C. Cline, candidate for Sheriff, and others.

REPUBLICAN MEETINGS. Other Republican meetings have been scheduled as follows: Today, sixteenth Assembly District meeting, Whittier, in public park, with band and other attractions, 7:30 p.m.; Republican League meeting, Eagles Hall, No. 320 South Main street, 8 p.m.

FOR FREDERICKS. ORDER LEAVES THEATER. Holy Cross Court No. 1282, Catholic Order of Foresters, has leased the Burbank Theater for the night of the 17th inst., and interspersed with the evening's entertainment will introduce to its members, certain political candidates. Chief of these will be Capt. Fredericks. Republican candidate for Governor. In the event that he returns here from his northern tour by that night, a box has been set aside for him, and the Foresters are anxious that he speak from the stage to the 1400 or more members who will be present.

INDORSE MYERS. WANT HIM FOR JUDGE. A formal statement, signed by over 100 well-known voters of all parties, was issued yesterday in the interest of the candidacy of Louis W. Myers for Superior Judge. After commending his record on the bench and pledging support, the signers urge all voters to go to the primaries and vote for him. The signers are: James A. Anderson, Russ Avery, George A. Barry, Mrs. Barthold Baruch, Mrs. William Baruch, Thomas A. Berkebile, Dr. Fred T. Bicknell, Mrs. John D. Bicknell, R. B. Bidwell, Reynold E. Bight, Willis H. Booth, Denis Evans Bowman, Mrs. E. R. Willett, Mrs. Fred W. Wood, Judge Waldo M. York, Sumner P. Zombro.

King Gets Busy. Charles King of Kings county, Democratic aspirant for the Governorship, spent a busy day conferring with local leaders and outlining plans for work during the remaining period before the primaries. He will leave here for San Francisco again tonight in order to meet an engagement to speak before one of the scores of King campaign clubs which have been organized about San Francisco Bay during the past fortnight. He expects to spend the final week of the campaign in Los Angeles.

Luncheon for Judges. The non-partisan Executive Committee has invited a number of candidates for the judiciary to a luncheon at the Alexandria next Tuesday. The following will be guests: Judge Nathaniel P. Conroy, candidate for presiding judge; Judge Charles Monroe, Willis I. Morrison, John W. Shank, Lewis R. Works, Grant Jackson, Louis W. Myers, candidates for the Superior bench, and J. W. Summerfield, candidate for justice of the peace. The committee is composed of Mrs. Henry Clay King, chairman; Mrs. David Thomas Forbes, Mrs. J. Henry Harris, Mrs. E. A. Kendall, Harry A. Banning, Mrs. C. Modini Wood, Mrs. E. R. Brainerd, Mrs. E. H. Preuss, Mrs. Henry Clay Dillon, Mrs. O. P. Clark and Florence Collins Porter.

Candidates Meet Women. The Women's Republican League yesterday held one of its largest and most enthusiastic meetings of the campaign at the assembly-room in the Hotel Alexandria. The speakers were Mrs. Ella Meeker, Republican candidate for the Assembly, Sixty-first District; Alfred Bartlett, Assemblyman candidate from the Sixty-third; Harry A. Chamberlain, Assemblyman candidate from the Seventy-second; M. L. Waver, candidate for Lieutenant-Governor, and John C. Cline, candidate for Sheriff.

Candidates at Club. The Los Angeles Athletic Club will give a banquet August 19 to many of the more prominent candidates, and in effort will be made to bring together all the State candidates who are in the city at that time. Among those who will participate are a number of candidates for judge and for Congress. It will be some evening, in which fun will be allowed to go the limit. Most of the candidates will be forced to give a valid reason, if any, for their candidacy. The banquet will be followed by considerable horseplay and a primary ballot that beats anything the State will put up on August 25, will be sprung.

After the Interlopers. Ed L. Head, Republican candidate for State Treasurer, and now keeper of the State archives at Sacramento, arrived in the city yesterday to campaign for two weeks. In all of his speeches he is calling the interloping "Progressives" who have stolen places on the Republican ticket by their right names. The attempted theft of nominations in this method is treated by Head, with severe criticism.

Political Notes. Justice P. M. Angellotti, candidate for Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, will arrive in Los Angeles Monday and will remain two days. He will be entertained by the committee which has endorsed his candidacy.

W. C. Ralston, Republican candidate for Governor, will return to Los Angeles on August 21 to wind up his campaign. The Pullman Social Club has endorsed Judge Thomas P. White for election as police judge.

Charles M. Releah, Republican candidate for Governor, will arrive in Los Angeles Sunday for a speaking tour of the county, and will go to San Diego before opening his campaign in this city. He is arraigning the Johnson administration and stands out against the eight-hour law and State-wide prohibition.

Former State Senator M. L. Ward of San Diego, was busy campaigning in Los Angeles yesterday for the Republican nomination for Lieutenant-Governor. He spoke at several meetings last night.

W. T. Ellis, advance campaign man for Gov. Johnson, asserts that the Governor will poll one-half of the Republican registered vote. Gov. Johnson had cold feet when it was suggested that he, too, run on the Republican ticket at the primaries.

ANIMUS OF IRELAND APPEARS IN COURT.

THE ANIMUS which may have inspired Rev. William Francis Ireland, means of support invisible and unknown, to take Fred L. Andrews, a convicted inebriate, to the Record office with the request to print an article defamatory to Police Judge Williams was brought out yesterday before Judge Wells in the Police Court, where Ireland, Andrews and George R. Young, editor of the paper, are on trial for criminal libel. Lewis Glassband, a Russian and Jewish interpreter, testified to a conversation with Ireland previous to the publication of the alleged libelous article, which appeared on July 1, in which Ireland said: "We'll get this guy before election, see if we don't."

The threat, according to the witness, was voiced a few moments after Judge Williams refused Ireland's request that a prisoner convicted of a heinous moral offense be given probation. Ireland's intercession was not explained satisfactorily to Judge Williams.

Judge Williams, the complaining witness, took the stand and related an incident in point. The judge said Ireland had come to his chambers on one occasion and that he, Ireland, had accepted money from prisoners for whom the self-styled "public defender" intervened. Ireland at first denied the allegation, whereupon Judge Williams became specific and declared Ireland had accepted $10 from a scarlet woman.

Ireland defends himself by saying that he had a right to accept "contributions" from the persons for whom he appeared if their gratitude took that turn, the witness testified.

"I told him if that's the case, 'get out of this office at once and don't come back,'" Judge Williams said on the stand.

The Record article charged that Judge Williams had exploited "down-and-outers" to line his private purse by taking prisoners from the Inebriate Farm and working them on his own ranch. The case of Andrews was cited.

Judge Williams testified that he was instrumental in the establishment of the inebriate farm and had found jobs for many of the men sent there, with the result that they bettered their position. In the Andrews case, Judge Williams said, he called the keeper of the inebriate farm and said that his father, C. B. Williams, could use a man on their Calabasas ranch. He did not ask for Andrews or know him, and did not hear of Andrews' alleged difficulty in securing his wages until Editor Young telephoned him.

SMUGGLING CASE TRIED. Capt. Samuel Ledingwell of the gasoline launch Ella was the principal witness against Charles Manser of San Diego, whose preliminary examination on the charge of conspiring with Richard T. O'Rourke, alias Thomas Ray, and Henry Kock, to violate the Chinese smuggling act, took place before United States Commissioner Williams yesterday. Testimony will be resumed this morning.

Why be Uncomfortable?

When you can live at Culver City?

In all large cities the residence districts do not enjoy the freedom from dust, smoke, etc., that prevails in the suburban communities. This is one of the reasons why during the past ten years there has been a heavy exodus from the dusty cities to the atmospherically pure outlying districts.

The prevailing air currents that pour in constantly from the ocean make Culver City absolutely free from smoke, dust or other impurities. Climatic conditions are as nearly perfect at this particular point as can be found anywhere in Southern California.

This residential advantage is one of the many reasons why Culver City is rapidly developing into an ideal home city. If you are weighing in your mind the advantages of certain localities relative to establishing a permanent home—study Culver City—and your problem will be solved.

TWO HOUSES AT CULVER CITY.

Culver City lies practically midway between Los Angeles and Venice. It enjoys transportation facilities unequalled by any of the smaller communities of Southern California—159 Pacific Electric cars stop at Culver City every 15 minutes. It is located at the converging point of three city-to-sea car lines. Its residential, commercial and industrial progress during the past few months is acknowledged to be the most remarkable real estate development of the present year.

Visit Culver City and see for yourself the remarkable progress that is being made in this strategically located junction city has accomplished in nine months. Call at our offices for free tickets.

TREND OF THE FINANCIAL NEWS.
CHIEF DEVELOPMENTS YESTERDAY.
(At Home.) The New York and the industrial world generally showed signs of reviving activity, but the usual business routine is largely suspended until an adjustment is reached. It is considered probable that within the next few days the question of which nation will control the seas will have been settled, which will restore normal conditions to the shipping interests and cause a more optimistic sentiment. Wheat closed at a slight advance. (Abroad.) The Bank of England reduced its rate of discount to 5 per cent. The Bank of France has suspended publication of its weekly statement, which is regarded as justified by the necessity of withholding from the public the exceptional changes in accounts. Americans abroad in financial stress are now being taken care of and drafts are being promptly cashed. (For details see the Financial Page.)

PEACEFUL DISPOSITION.
Of old there were three wise men in the East. There now seems to be only one. "One, two, three—Oh you heathen Chinese" is the way the old song once ran, but the Chinaman is not a heathen in the present world crisis. He desires peace above all else and is thereby the most Christian of all nations.

AMERICAN CHANCE.
There should be no grief among women in the United States if Paris should fail to decree the world's styles during the war. If American women have their say about the fashions for a year or two they will probably never again turn to the dictators of any other country. They have wealth in money, fabrics and design and certainly they have unrivaled loveliness to be clothed.

LONG ON THE WAY.
Fifteen divorces were granted and thirteen were refused in a local court in three hours of one day. This is not unseemly. The court had simply to look at the evidence which the different couples involved had accumulated in years of matrimony. The part of the court was done in a few minutes, but the breach he recognized and legalized was the growth of many unhappy months.

SOVING A PROBLEM.
This city and county have combined in the organization of a bureau of United Charities that will endeavor to help those who are in real need and prevent all abuse of charity. It is a big undertaking, but it has the backing of all philanthropic agencies of a local character and it ought to achieve a great deal of good. It is to be hoped that the board of managers and the trustees will give this work their personal attention and never allow it to devolve in its entirety upon only two or three individuals.

VIRTUE OF PROMPTNESS.
The virtue of promptness should be a part of the curriculum of every school from the kindergarten to the college. Promptness leads to accomplishment, while delay is the parent of failure. If you put off doing until tomorrow what you can do and ought to do today, whether it is the payment of a promissory note or the repair of a water pipe, you will carry a burden on your own mind all day, and vex your sleep at night, and cause the other fellow, who is discommoded by your failure, to have, if not to express, an opinion of you that it would not contribute to your happiness to hear.

THE DEATH OF MRS. WILSON.
Mrs. Woodrow Wilson is dead. And in this time of sorrow the nation extends to her husband, the President, its full, deep sympathy. She was his companion and wife almost from the days of youth, enjoying with him the increasing honors that came, sustaining him with love and affection through all the years. Mrs. Wilson was an admirable woman; but she was not fitted by health nor by inclination for the rigorous social and semi-official duties that her position entailed. As a mother, as a wife and as a friend, she was given the admiration of those who came into her acquaintance. From the day she entered the White House it was not possible for her to be free from the harassing anxiety that she felt for the President, burdened with responsibilities and beset with difficulties. As a loving and tender wife, it is only natural that she should have taken unto herself the weight of the many cares and problems that came to him. The pressure of political and international affairs, the disturbance of war upon war and alarm after alarm, with threatening and complicated aspects, the inevitable worries that came to her because of the President's trials, undoubtedly aggravated the sickness that passed into death. It is not possible to convey by words the extent of the sympathy that the people extend to their President. Even to attempt to do so would be idle. We may realize something of how much the people's sorrow is intensified because at this time not only the complex affairs of our own government are in his keeping, but in the interest of humanity and encouraged by his countrymen he has reached out to the warring nations of Europe and offered assistance in re-establishing their peace. So that at the hour when he stood in the greatest need of his wife's companionship and counsel, her affection and aid, the parting came. But she is at rest!

OVERSEAS—THE SITUATION TODAY.
A digest of all the late dispatches last night shows that John Bull is settled in the conviction that the European war is to be a long one rather than a short one. All the nations involved have opened their coffers wide to Mars to draw as much as he needs for his immediate or ultimate business. The German Kaiser issued an appeal to "all Germans capable of bearing arms" and Berlin at the same time denied that the Germans had been driven back from Liege. The Paris dispatch frankly intimated that little surprise would result if the Belgians withdrew from some of the forts around Liege. Two of the forts have been reduced by the Germans. London reported an engagement of British and German ships "on the high seas." The British Admiralty, however, fails to confirm the report. The British cruiser Amphion has been sunk by contact with a mine. Austria-Hungary has declared war on Russia and Russian cavalry trying to enter Germany has been driven back by the East Prussian frontier guards. In Washington the conviction grows that Europe cannot long subsist without our cereals, and there the opinion is voiced that in two weeks or so one or the other of the powers contending for it will have achieved complete mastery of the seas and then shipments of American products will be resumed.

THE "UNION LABEL."
The Times prefer to characterize it as the badge of servitude. We have made an extensive collection of the placards and cards of the numerous political candidates now attempting to engage the attention and solicit the support of the people of California. Some of these campaign devices we have viewed with indifference. The pretensions of insignificant people who describe vaingloriously their alleged qualifications cannot well be viewed otherwise than with indifference. Some of them are viewed with amusement—in fact, a great many of them. And some of them are viewed with indignation and contempt. One conspicuous feature of printed cards announcing in rather large type the "fearless character of Mr. Johnson" is that so many of them present a prima facie denial of any such fearlessness by the adoption of the badge of servitude which is stamped upon the campaign advertising. We mean the union label—the "bug mark" of the grafting, criminal and hypocritical leaders of labor-unionism.

It is not pleasant to see in this land of freedom that so many of those who are putting themselves forward as "servants of the people" first attest their allegiance and servitude to the very small part of the people who comprise the labor unions—less than 15 per cent. of the whole body of labor. The interests of the unions and the interests of the people as a whole are not by any means analogous, and it requires twisted reasoning to show that the candidate who first pledges himself to the principles of unionism, or who fears to remain untaged and unlabeled, is fit to serve the people. On the broadest grounds and for the clearest reasons a candidate should refuse to wear the badge of servitude.

It is curious how the obsession of the union label possesses candidates. As a class they are positively superstitious about having the "bug mark" branded on them. Whereas "the heathen in his ignorance" wears charms blessed by the medicine man, some of our timid and shortsighted candidates rejoice in dangling before the eyes of voters the proscription little cable-lift emblem blessed by Sam Gompers, Charles Meyer, P. H. McCarthy and Olaf Tveitmo—a merry quartette of scoundrels, not all of whom have escaped the penitentiary.

And the bit of shell over which the medicine man has performed his rites is just as potent a political asset as the mark, not so very different from an enlarged drawing of a bedbug, which represents fear of and servitude to the labor unions.

In the first place not much over 10 per cent. of the workers of the country are members of unions, and that percentage is far less in Southern California. But the union members do not vote as one man, despite the exhortations and threats of Gompers and those whom his special disposition creates as bosses. The ranks of the unions are filled with honest men and women, somewhat glib, but nevertheless sincere. And when it comes to voting for a candidate, they do not support one simply because he is so much of a coward, and frequently so much of a hypocrite, as to stamp the union label on his campaign cards and when, perhaps, the voter himself knows that the candidate is in fact not a champion of "Organized Labor," as S. Gompers calls it.

As a matter of fact, the presence of the union label on a card indicates insincerity on the part of the average candidate. The label isn't there because he wants it there. He would not choose to have the badge of the saloon-keepers or the emblem of the prohibitionists placed on his card, would he? Who would announce himself as pledged to wear the collar of any secret society other than the unions? Does any body really desire to be considered a class candidate?

Perhaps it must be admitted that some of the candidates circulate union label cards unwittingly. Sometimes their managers do it without consulting the candidates. But when such is the case it looks rather bad for a candidate who wants to manage public affairs to be so weak, negligent and careless in managing his own.

No candidate wins by humbling himself to the union label. The man who has the courage and the good sense to ignore the threats and overtures of the unions, and who refuses to humiliate himself by being marked, tagged and branded like a piece of useless merchandise, is respected all the more highly; for by giving evidence of such courage, such freedom from intimidation, he evinces those admirable qualifications which are so eminently needed by men in public service.

The people of the United States as a whole, and of California in particular, do not want sycophants in office. Men who truckle and crawl about on their stomachs, whimpering for the support of this organization or that organization, are not fit to serve. Men who dare not run for office without muzzling attacks from the unions by first acknowledging allegiance to the

"bug mark" are not the people that make desirable public officials. The best men are those who are upstanding and unafraid, who can point to a record of efficiency and a life of integrity, and who manfully refuse to degrade themselves in servitude to any faction or organization for the purpose of getting a few votes. These just, equitable and plainly-stated views are commended to all the numerous California candidates for office, and without regard to race, color or previous condition of mankind.

THE DUTY OF NEUTRALITY.
The imperative duty of a neutral nation to refrain from any act, and to restrain its citizens from any act, that will substantially aid a belligerent is established by both international and statute law. Great Britain paid fifteen millions of dollars for her neutrality in permitting the Alabama and the Shenandoah to be fitted out in a British port. If we had sold the Idaho and the Mississippi to Serbia or Austria instead of Greece, after the declaration of hostilities, we would have been liable not only to heavy money damages under the law of nations, but would have made ourselves an ally of the purchasing power to an extent that would have justified the other belligerent in declaring war against us. By the treaty of Washington between the United States and Great Britain, made after the Civil War, it is declared that "a neutral government is bound, first, to use diligence to prevent the fitting out, arming or equipping, within its jurisdiction, of any vessel which it has reasonable ground to believe is intended to cruise or carry on war against a power with which it is at peace; and also to use diligence to prevent the departure from its jurisdiction of any vessel intended to cruise or carry on war as above, such vessel having been specially adapted, in whole or in part, within such jurisdiction to warlike use."

We could not permit any of the ships of commerce of a European belligerent to be armed and armed in an American shipyard, even for the purpose of resisting attacks, without violating the obligations of neutrality. We could not permit a vessel of war belonging to a belligerent to take on supplies or provisions or coal at any American port more than sufficient to enable her to reach her home port, or allow such a vessel to remain in one of our ports more than twenty-four hours, except in case of necessity. During the Spanish-American war the Spanish Consul at Hongkong protested to the British Governor against an American gunboat being allowed to take on supplies for our fleet at Manila. The British Governor said he would respect the protest of the Spanish Consul, but hoped that the latter would not object to a few luxuries being shipped for the use of Admiral Dewey and his officers. The Spaniard, with high-toned Castilian courtesy, withdrew his protest so far as a few luxuries were concerned, whereupon the American gunboat loaded up with a few hundred barrels of corned meats and a few hundred cases of beer as "luxuries" for the use of American officers.

A neutral state is under the absolute obligation to do nothing which will aid one belligerent to the injury of another. It cannot furnish armed assistance in the way of troops or munitions of war, and it cannot loan money. It is the duty of a neutral state to prevent the organization in or departure from its territory of an expedition intended to wage war against a friendly nation. The law of nations in these respects has been supplemented and vitalized in this country by the neutrality acts of Congress. The present law declares it to be a misdemeanor for any citizen within the territory or jurisdiction of the United States to accept and exercise a commission to serve in war any foreign prince, state, colony, district or people with whom the United States are at peace, or for any person to enlist or enter himself, or hire or retain another person to enlist or enter himself, or to go beyond the limits of the United States with intent to be enlisted in the service of any foreign state or people. It is also made criminal for any person within the United States to fit out or arm a vessel or to increase or augment the force of any armed vessel or to be knowingly concerned therein with intent that it shall be employed in the service of a foreign state or any colony, district or people to commit hostilities against a state at peace with the United States, the vessel with her stores and armament being also subject to forfeiture in such case. And it is likewise made criminal for any person in the United States to begin or set on foot or provide means for any military expedition or enterprise to be carried on from thence against any foreign state with which the United States are at peace. (Rev. Stat. U. S. Sec. 5231-5239.)

THE BIRTH OF THE BEAST CALLED WAR.
In the few moments of stark devastation Where the moon made a ghost in the gloom,
From the maelstrom of night's desolation Slipped the black bristly beast from the womb.
Not a lip curled its rose into laughter, 'E'en its brute mother sobbed as it came,
For she saw it down aeons hereafter Orbed with ashes that quiver with fame.
Fear and famine were grooved in its features, Shagged with horror and beetle-browed death;
With a snarl and a fang for all creatures It came trothing hot fire in its breath.
All the venomous slaughter of battle That will be and that was and now is,
Scoured its voice with a raucous death rattle, Stuffed its throat with a serpentine hiss.
God of lily and sparrow and nation, At Whose word the white stars whirl and sing,
In the crystal-clear woot of creation, How came there this damnable thing?
T. HOWARD WILSON.

STREAKS OF WIT.

No Use for Alcohol.

Having High Times.
[Yonkers Statesman:] Patience: They were married at high noon, I believe.
Patience: Yes.
Patience: Are they getting on nicely?

[Congressionalist:] Margaret: How does your friend Mrs. Brown stand on the suffrage question?
Anna: She's doing picket duty.
Margaret: Doing picket duty—what, for suffrage?
Anna: Oh, no; she's on the fence.

An Idiographic Menu.
[Pele Mele:] "Waiter, give me the menu."
"We have none, but I can tell you what we have."
"You must have a jolly good memory."
"Not at all. I simply look at the tablecloth."

THE PRESIDENT.
WALT MASON IN THE TIMES.

The President has lots of troubles, all kinds of grief he knows; and every day that passes doubles the number of his woes. Unselfish friends are few around him—plain is the reason why—but patriots forever bound him, and think of naught but ple. What's he does kicks up a rumpus, and makes some statesman mad. "If he," they say, "thinks he can bump us, his figuring is bad." And to the grindstone they go weavin' to grind their scolding knives, and to the work of getting even devote their useless lives. And all the bobs are ever watching for him, throughout the land, around his pathway wrestling, Gitching, to shake his weary hand. And all the freaks who think conditions are worse than e'er before, are ever standing with petitions before the White House door. And silly dames who want the ballot are camping on his trail; methinks he'd like to take a mallet and that weird host assail. I'd rather be a bumble bee and run the garbage van, than be the Presidential martyr, the guest of every man. Not all the glory or the honor would tempt me to that game; 'twould wear me out, I'd be a goner before the pay day came.

A TRUE WORD SPOKEN IN JEST.
[Covina Argus:] The editor of the Pasadena News is running for Congress on the slogan, "Back to Business." Presumably he means back to "big business." But that era is gone.—(Hemet News.)

Yes, the Argus agrees that that era is gone. The era of big business in sugar beet in California is gone; the era of big business in the extension of railroads looks very much as if it was gone; also the era of little business seems to be going. When Frank C. Roberts of the Pasadena News adopted the slogan of "Back to Business" he meant back to big business and back to little business and back to sane business—back to prosperity, where we were a few years ago, before editors like the editor of the Hemet News began to screen Progressivism, thus splitting the Republican party of protection and allowing the Democrats to cut the tariff on California products.

Yes, we would be mighty glad to get back to big business if we could. In order that some of us who are conducting little businesses might make a dollar now and then, there has certainly been too much of this idea that every man who has a dollar has stolen it. The Progressive editor of the Hemet News is one of those who call every man a calamity howler who mentions the fact that the tariff reduction has hurt California business. We are not calamity howlers, but on the other hand are working determinedly and doggedly for a return of prosperity.

If we can get "back to business" we will start a brisker demand for some of those Hemet al'alfa farms that they seem so anxious to sell down there, and that will mean more demand for advertising space in the Hemet News, thus automatically cutting down the space now devoted to Progressive and free trade editorials.

[Washington Star:] "De man dat insalts on tellis" all be know," said Uncle Eben, "keeps himself so busy talkin' dat he don't get a chance to git much real information."

ADVENTISTS PUT TAX ON MEMBERS.

PROVISION MADE FOR FOREIGN MISSIONS BY CONFERENCE IN ALHAMBRA.

ALHAMBRA, Aug. 6.—The Southern California Conference of Seventh Day Adventists will raise 20 cents a week per member for foreign missions this year, according to action of the delegates this afternoon. This is in harmony with the plan of the world conference, having headquarters in Washington. It is not a tax upon the members but the conference aim. In a few minutes $500 was contributed to this fund in the big tent today.

Officers for the ensuing year were elected this afternoon as follows: President, P. M. Burg; secretary and treasurer, R. M. Emerson; auditor, Claude Conard; Executive Committee, F. M. Burg, H. G. Lucas, J. A. Burden, R. S. Owen, Clarence Santee, T. Richardson, V. H. Lucas, C. E. Rice, W. D. Salisbury.

WILL MEET TONIGHT TO PLAN RELIEF AND DENOUNCE BIAISED PRESS.

Germans of the city and vicinity will meet at 8 o'clock tonight at Turner Hall, for organization of relief work and to protest against articles and headlines that have appeared in some local newspapers.

A Red Cross society will be formed, as the best means of getting relief to those here into the war zone. It is believed funds handled through such a society would pass the lines of the belligerents.

Provision will be planned for families of Germans who have left here to take up arms. The number of these is known only approximately, but from railroad men information has been secured that there have already departed for the front several hundreds. The majority of these, however, have no families here. On the other hand there will be a number of men who have gone in a single day, and the purpose of registering at the consulates in New York.

One definite purpose of meeting is to protest against "anti-German" utterances of certain newspapers. Intense feeling throughout the German community has been roused, and at the Consulate yesterday there was a demonstration by more than one hundred military men, in protest that was quieted only by counsel of cooler heads.

Tonight's meeting was called by prominent Germans in their private capacity. Max Socha will be chairman.

TAX BUDGET FIXED.

FULLERTON, Aug. 6.—The City Trustees have passed an ordinance declaring $55,700 to be the amount required to be raised for municipal purposes the coming year. Property in the city limits is valued by the Assessor at $2,172,355. The time for fixing the tax rate has not arrived, but according to plans, it will be about $1.10 on the $100 assessed valuation. This will be a reduction of 10 cents from the rate of last year, and the county rate will also be 5 cents less. The rate for school purposes in the rate for high school purposes is believed this city will have a low rate the coming year. The City Trustees were in Los Angeles today with a view of purchasing a new fire truck to cost between $4000 and $5000.

LOADED TRUCK BURNS.

UPLAND, Aug. 6.—A valuable auto truck belonging to W. E. Allen of Upland, and driven by Jesse M. Busby, also of this city, was wholly destroyed by fire, together with a big load of second-hand furniture and household goods, at a point near Lemon, on the Valley boulevard, while en route from Rochester to Alhambra. A leaky gasoline tank on the truck was responsible for the fire. The truck was valued at $4000, and there was insurance to the amount of $3000. There was no insurance on the goods, and the value of the latter had not yet been determined. Both the owner and driver of the truck had a close call in getting off the vehicle when the latter, which burst into almost incredible rapidity and fierceness.

FANGS FAIL TO STING.

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Aug. 6.—While camping in San Diego county a few days ago, Ellis Davis, Elman Planchon, Claude Salisbury and Gardner Nichols of Wintersburg were attacked by a huge rattlesnake which they killed after a big load.

As the party was walking along the big reptile sprang from behind a cactus and struck Davis on the back of the neck with its fangs. The boys were considerably frightened by the unexpected appearance of the rattler, which measured 7 ft. 3 in., was 15 inches in circumference and had twenty-seven rattles.

POKER GAME RAIDED.

Five young men were arrested in a room at No. 221 East Fourth street last night and charged with gambling. It is alleged a poker game was in progress. The police secured 8 cents, some chips and a deck of cards as evidence. Those arrested were Ezra Israel, shoemaker; Asher Israel, fruit dealer; David Meneshe, peddler; Jake Roussou, peddler, and Mark Sturgo, fruit dealer.

FRACTURES LEG.

While trying to get on a car at Eighth and Hill streets early last night, John Hendry, No. 2866 Sixth avenue, Ocean Park, slipped and fractured his right leg. He was taken to the California Hospital.

YOUTHS INJURED IN A RUNAWAY.

HORSE IS FRIGHTENED AT AUTO AND REINS BREAK AS HE BOLTS.

CORONA, Aug. 6.—Two 12-year-old boys, George Green and William Young, the former from Elinore and the latter from Los Angeles, were painfully injured at Glen Ivy Hot Springs yesterday afternoon. The young fellows have been visiting friends in Corona for several days and before returning to their homes they wished to pass a day in the canyon. As they were leaving the resort their horse became frightened at an automobile and in the effort to stop the animal the lines broke and allowed the horse to bolt. Green's arm was broken and Young suffered a broken leg.

The boys were taken to Elinore and later to the Riverside City Hospital.

NEWS BRIEFS.

The 8-year-old son of George Bane found some dynamite caps this morning and in his anxiety to discover what they were made of he was badly burned on the hands and face and received several other painful bruises, which required the attention of a doctor.

Mrs. L. M. Patton went to San Bernardino this morning to undergo an operation for the removal of a piece of a steel pin about half an inch long. The pin entered her hand one day while she was washing and only lately has it annoyed her. An X-ray examination showed the pin sticking in the bone near the wrist joint.

Upon the urgent requests of a number of residents living north of Corona the Board of Supervisors have decided to build the new bridge about one mile east of the site of the present bridge across the Santa Ana River north of Corona. The estimated cost of the bridge will be about $10,000.

FEAR FOR LIFE OF INJURED MAN.

SHERIFF SEARCHING DESERT FOR ONE BELIEVED TO BE WANDERING ABOUT.

SAN BERNARDINO, Aug. 6.—It is believed here that Jonie Douglas, brother of P. E. Douglas of Colton, has perished on the desert. Soon after he was injured in a mysterious manner and sixteen stitches taken in his scalp, he disappeared and it is feared that he wandered into the Arizona desert in a delirious condition from Gila, where he was hurt, according to the message which the brother has received.

Sheriff J. C. Ralph today notified Arizona officers asking aid in the search. There is little or no water in the territory through which Douglas is thought to be wandering, and owing to the fact that he was already in a greatly weakened condition, hope has practically been given up of finding him alive.

The city will force local physicians to file all birth certificates with the Health Department. Because the monthly statements show the death rate in this city thrupence that of the births, Dr. J. W. Aldridge, city Health Officer, has called the fact to the attention of City Attorney William Guthrie, and the doctor will be compelled to report every population increase immediately.

Four boys held at the Detention Home made a sensational escape from the institution late last night, taking with them a rifle, revolver and some jewelry, the property of Superintendent and Mrs. O. E. Bigelow. One of the quartette, Paul Morgan, was captured a short time later, and the other three have not been located today. The boys are Charles Hidingar, John Despeñaria and Ernest Muchman, whose ages range from 13 to 16 years.

NEWS BRIEFS.

Mrs. Laura B. Jones, wife of a Santa Fe brakeman who was killed on North street some months ago today was granted judgment for $4500 from the Santa Fe. The amount was the result of a suit by the widow originally suing for $35,000.

W. C. Miller, a Santa Fe brakeman, committed suicide at Needles by shooting himself through the heart with a revolver. He left a note that his body be sent to Houston, Tex., but gave no reason for ending his life.

SOUTHWARD TOURIST TIDE.

Tourist travel from Southern California is now turning toward South America and Australia.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Lloyd, accompanied by their two children, Florence and Alice, are among the first to sail from San Francisco for Tahiti, Rarotonga, New Zealand and South Islands of New Zealand, and for extensive travel through Australia. F. L. Ewing and Carl Ewing of Yuma, as well as Mr. and Mrs. J. James Tucson, have left for an extensive tour around the Southern Hemisphere. After visiting Bahia, Santos and Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, they will continue to Montevideo, Buenos Aires and through the Argentine Republic, going thence to Valparaiso and Chile, returning to San Francisco by way of South America, visiting all the principal ports en route to Panama, and coming home via Jamaica, Cuba and New Orleans.

Etawah, who two weeks ago broke the 2-year-old colt record held by Dietrich for twenty-one years, clipped another quarter of a second
from the mark at today's Grand Cir-

King Couchman easily won the $2500 Comstock stake for 2:11 placers
in straight heats.

After finishing poorly in two heats of the 2:08 pace, Omar showed surprising speed and captured the next three.

The handicap sweepstakes was won by Grace, who started 183 feet back of the wire, the greatest handicap.
The race went four heats, Grace tak-

EIGHTY-ONE CREWS TO ENTER REGATTA.

PART OARSMEN FROM UNITED STATES AND CANADA WILL RACE.

(BY A. F. NIGHT WIRE.)
PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 6.—Eighty-one rowing crews from many sections of this country and Canada are ready for the forty-second annual regatta of the National Association of Amateur Oarsmen which will be held tomorrow and Saturday on the Schuylkill River.

Sixteen races were on the programme, eight of which will be rowed each day. The quarter-mile dash, in which twelve senior scullers are entered, is the crown event in which the best will be necessary. Two heats of this race will take place tomorrow and the final on Saturday.

The Canadian crews, Don Rowing
Club, the Argonauts and the Toronto Boat Club, which reached here today, completed the rest of their contingent. They were delayed in getting their shells through the custom house, but are now able to take a practice row over the course late today.

Willie Ritchie prior to his departure to England bought eighty house lots
in San Francisco for which he paid $10,000. Albrecht, a two-story apartment-house is being erected upon one of the lots cost $40,000.

Has a Pull.

PICKING OF KARL BEHR DOESN'T SEEM JUSTIFIED.

On Form the Brookes and Wilding Combination from Australasia Looks Absolutely Unbeatable, but the Great McLoughlin May Possibly Wallop Both of the Wonders.

THE win of Australasia over Canada and Germany in the Davis cup competition leaves the three strongest contenders to fight it out to a finish.

The make-up of the teams has now been declared in full, and the selections of Great Britain and America are rather remarkable. England declares
J. C. Parks, A. R. F. Kingscote, T. C.
Mavrogordato and A. H. Lowe. King-scote is a Lieutenant in the British army and since the declaration of war is said to have departed for England.

ACETRALASIAN STRONG.
Australasia is represented by Norman Brookes, A. T. Wilding, D. N.
Doust and A. H. Dunlop, and the United States will depend upon Mc-Loughlin, Williams, T. C. Bundy and Karl Behr. The Australasian team is, beyond a doubt, the best that could be secured under any circumstances, and each member is a star.

The selection of the English team has excited a vast amount of criticism, and apparently with good reason. Having practically no youngsters in the tennis ranks, England has,
during the past ten years, depended upon the same little band of veteran players—Gore, Barrett, Dixon, Ritchie —who are all now well over the 40-year line.

Occasionally they have honored comparatively young men like A. H. and Gordon Lowe and J. C. Parks,
who are each about 30 years of age,
but these occasions have been few.

The veterans have maintained England's prestige in the sport very creditably, but the younger men of other nations have lately been beating the old guard, and a change of policy has been adopted.

Discarding the old standard bearers
altogether, they have named the English team three men—A. H. Lowe, A.
R. F. Kingscote and T. C. Mavrogordato —who have not won in the past two years three important tournaments between them.

PARKE ENTITLED TO PLACE.
J. C. Parks, the mainstay of the team, is certainly entitled to a place,
although he has been already beaten
this year by F. G. Lowe, D. N. Doust,
A. E. Beamish, Hope Crisp and Otto Frothingham. He can be depended upon, however, to improve as the season advances.

The English Selection Committee
overlooked F. G. Lowe, the only English player who has shown real improvement during the past year. Lowe has figured in a great many tournaments during the past six months, and has lost very seldom, except when he encountered Wilding.

LOOKS GOOD.
On form he looks to be the best English player at the present time except Parks. Mavrogordato and Kingscote have shown remarkable ability in some of the matches they have lost, but that just about lets them out, except that Mavrogordato was a good match from Decuria the French expert in the Davis cup series, this year, against France.

In the English championships in June Kingscote was beaten by Geers
the ex-champion of England, 44 years old, in straight sets.

The selection of the American Davis cup team will also very likely cause
some adverse criticism.

BEHR WEAK SELECTION.
Maurice McLoughlin and R. Williams could hardly be barred from the team under any circumstances, but the Inclusion of Karl Behr, looks unwarranted. He has had a single tourney in two seasons and he has been beaten this year by Johnston in the singles tryout and his only victory has been in the Middle States tournament at which he beat T. R. Fell and G. F.

Touchard in close matches. Behr earned a great reputation in his younger days by a victory over W. A.
Larned, and by making a hard fight against Norman Brookes in Australia, which ran to five sets. Since that time though he has promised a lot, he has not performed. Nevertheless he has been favored very steadily ever since that Australian trip.

NO REASON.
For two years he was held in the ranking list of the ten best American players, with little or no excuse, and was only dropped in 1914. This year he secured a place which by rights should be according to the work done, to either Johnston, Murray or Clothier. The method of holding the tryouts appears to be something of a farce.

Two little tournaments in which
most of the best men figured in singles were supposed to afford the best selection in evidence in the Davis cup team, but they appear to have had little weight.

The system of selecting a team because of their standing in one or two tournaments, is very unsatisfactory. A round-robin tournament should have been played, particularly in doubles,
and all the combinations possible
among the best ten or twelve men ought to have been tried out.

BUNDY HAS GONE BACK.
According to reports Bundy and McLoughlin do not impress the English as being up to the task. Bundy has been beaten by Johnston in the Davis cup series, and he is quite probably that McLoughlin and Johnston, or McLoughlin and Williams, or Mc-Loughlin and Clothier would make a stronger team.

At all events, they should have been tried out. If Bundy says as well as in previous years, however, the old combination probably will be able to hold the Australasian to an even break in the doubles.

The final result of the Davis cup contests now appears to be a more open question than it was a few weeks ago, when it was reported that Brookes had beaten Wilding in three straight sets in the finals of the English championships.

VERY STRONG.
Wilding had never been beaten
since he defeated McLoughlin last year in England, and had won a great many tournaments since. It was thought, on receipt of the cable advice, that as Brookes was still better, the pair must be unbeatable.

Full reports, however, have ever, indicate that loss of form on Wilding's part had as much to do with the result as the play of Brookes.

Wilding's work in doubles was hardly up to form in this tourney.
In the final match against Barrett and Dixon, Brookes and Wilding won two sets, 6-1, 6-1, but lost the next, 7-5. They were forced by the veterans in the fourth to a score of 8-6.

McLoughlin and Bundy, if in form,
will be much stronger than McLoughlin and Hackett, who beat Dixon and Barrett last year, and on form they ought to figure on even terms with the Australasians. In singles, Mc-Loughlin holds his own quite well against the challengers, while neither of them is safe from Williams.

WITH THE MUFFLER OPEN

BY AL. G. WADDELL.

THE Motor Truck Dealers' Association of Southern California was organized yesterday. A battalion of motor truck men gathered at Christopher's soda pop emporium, and after eating everything in the place but the license and drinking all the soft stuff but the mercury in the L. J. C. barometer, these men proceeded to make a sure enough corporation out of themselves.

Fifty years was announced as the life period of the organization and all hands promised to stick around for the next fifty summers.

Presenting himself was not among those present. He misunderstood J.
P. Lakin and thought the feed was to be held at Fred Harlow's, a supply store. Owing to the absence of Brother Smith, the famous Riverside
quartette was unable to render service.

After an oration by Bert Smith, O.
R. Fuller, L. J. Stoner, Wat More-
land and O. B. Henderson, the game
was called on account of darkness.

W. E. Smith, one of the White
boys in the coming truck run, said
last night that a stack of chips about $5000 high had been raised among
White boosters to cover the E. Piur-sum flash by Moreland truck
fans.

There are three big questions confronting the motor truck men at present. Who will land the Dodge agency for Southern California? Will
the Ford men be able to keep the Ford men from the Ford men?

Who will win the next indianapolis 500-mile race? If all the Frenchmen have to go to war?

John Weiss was not to be found
at the United States tire foundry yesterday afternoon. It was at first believed that he had been drafted for foreign service in the army of his country; but he was later found at the
Treadwell plant telling about his home in Denmark.

George Cilne has the names of just
about forty specimens who are promised to bring in the first deer of the season. William R. Russ says it
can't be done.

Leon T. Shettler is still tongue-tied
when the Phoenix road race is mentioned. He has been so since he was kept pretty much busy since the price
of the little Grant car was lowered.

quartette was unable to render service.

After an oration by Bert Smith, O.
R. Fuller, L. J. Stoner, Wat More-
land and O. B. Henderson, the game
was called on account of darkness.

W. E. Smith, one of the White
boys in the coming truck run, said
last night that a stack of chips about $5000 high had been raised among
White boosters to cover the E. Piur-
sum flash by Moreland truck
fans.

There are three big questions confronting the motor truck men at present. Who will land the Dodge agency for Southern California? Will
the Ford men be able to keep the
Ford men from the Ford men?

Who will win the next indianapolis 500-mile race? If all the Frenchmen have to go to war?

John Weiss was not to be found
at the United States tire foundry yesterday afternoon. It was at first believed that he had been drafted for
foreign service in the army of his
country; but he was later found at the
Treadwell plant telling about his home in Denmark.

George Cilne has the names of just
about forty specimens who are promised to bring in the first deer of the season. William R. Russ says it
can't be done.

Leon T. Shettler is still tongue-tied
when the Phoenix road race is mentioned. He has been so since he was
kept pretty much busy since the price
of the little Grant car was lowered.

BOLD BURGLARS
LOOT LEATHER.

Move Away Half a Store
Without Leaving Clue.

Tournament Park to Become
Big Athletic Field.

Operation on Prof. Hale Is Postponed a Day.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE)
PASADENA, Aug. 7.—What is said to be one of the boldest burglaries ever committed here occurred Wednesday night, when two men entered the wholesale leather store of John Janbard at No. 150 North Raymond avenue and carried away nearly half of the entire stock.

The police department was not informed of the burglary until yesterday morning, after Janbard opened up his store and discovered his loss, which he reports to be about $1500.

A. Cress, an old man, said to be nearly blind and hard of hearing and who lives in a boarding-house near by, witnessed the robbery and didn't know it till today.

He thought because the men were talking so loudly that they must have a right there. He took one of them to be Janbard, though he paid very little attention to either. And for this reason the police were not notified by him.

The goods stolen consisted of 100 "jumbo" of leather, each bundle made up of a dozen pieces of shoe sole leather weighing about ten pounds each. Their combined weight nearly a ton, and is valued at $1500.

The robbers are said to have remained in the store fully a quarter of an hour. Cress saw them as they piled the goods in a wagon, which they had backed against the door.

Entrance into the store was gained by standing on the wagon, and climbing through the transom over the back door. Only the best leather in the stock was taken and it is believed the thieves are experts on the value of leather.

Hand prints were discovered in the dust on the transom by policemen and the wagon tracks were traced for a short distance.

BIG ATHLETIC FIELD.
Just as soon as the Tournament of Roses Association has turned over the Tournament Park to the city of Pasadena it will be improved. A committee from several civic organizations were given this information yesterday by the Commissioners.

The committee includes Dr. James H. McBride, A. Claude Braden, Herman R. Hertel of the Public Athletic League; T. P. Luken of the Board of Trade; Dr. Z. T. Malaby of the Pasadena Polo Club, John W. Wood of the Tournament of Roses Association, and Dean Damon of the Throop Institute of Technology.

It is the intention of the Commissioners to make this an athletic park for the city to be devoted to whatever line of athletic activities the public may desire. In all probability the park will have several tennis courts. The improvements will be undertaken as soon as the city has taken formal possession, which will likely be early in the fall, and it is understood that it will be kept open the year round.

The Public Athletic League will perhaps have much to do with the future of the park.

OPERATION POSTPONED.
The operation for appendicitis which was to have been performed on Prof. George Ellery Hale, the astronomer, in the Pasadena Hospital today, has been postponed till tomorrow morning at 7:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Hale, who has been visiting in New Haven, Ct., will reach his bedside some time today.

Dr. Henry Sherb will perform the operation and says that conditions are now very favorable to the rapid recovery of the astronomer after he has submitted to the knife.

NO MONEY ORDERS.
Because of the European war, practically no money orders have been issued for foreign countries for a week. Postmaster McLean has warned Pasadenaans wishing to send money to friends or relatives in France, Germany, Austria and other countries of the war zone to wait at least until postal service is again established to its normal condition.

RIVERSIDE MAUSOLEUM.
Big Deal Closed for Land in Evergreen Cemetery Insures Working Out of Plans.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE)
RIVERSIDE, Aug. 6.—A mausoleum costing $80,000 or $100,000, according as a canvass of the community shall seem to warrant, was assured today through the closing of a deal for a minimum of 4000 feet of land in Evergreen cemetery by the California Mausoleum Company composed of Pasadena capitalists.

This company erected the mausoleum recently completed in Inglewood cemetery, Los Angeles. The structure will be built of concrete and granite while the interior will be finished in marble and bronze. At least 300 crypts will be provided for, and possibly 600.

BRAKEMAN INJURED.
(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE)
ORANGE, Aug. 6.—R. Myers of San Bernardino, a Santa Fe brakeman, accidentally fell from a fast freight between Olive and Orange last night and when found two hours later he had a paralyzed side and a broken right arm below the elbow. Myers missed by the train crew when it reached Orange at 12:30 o'clock, and the engine went back. When passing him the second time Myers managed to wave his broken arm and attract attention. He was thrown into weeds several yards from the tracks. He has a wife and two children. The man is in the Santa Fe hospital in Los Angeles.

San Gabriel.
POLITICAL FERVOR STIRS UP ANGER OF WOMEN.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE)
SAN GABRIEL, Aug. 6.—As a result of a few political remarks made by John E. Blee, candidate for Supervisor, allegedly at the invitation of Anna Fuller Russell, chairman of the programme committee of the garden fete given by the San Gabriel Woman's Chamber of Commerce, at "Locust Nook" Tuesday evening, a stormy business session ensued yesterday afternoon, during which the short and ugly word was frequently used.

The by-laws of the organization make no mention of either politics or religion, but it has been understood that neither was to be considered at any time. It is said that the exception to this sentiment occurred a short time ago, when Mrs. H. L. Purinton of Sunny Slope, a supporter of Mr. Blee, passed some of Blee's cards around at the close of a meeting. The matter was allowed to pass and no further attention paid to it until Tuesday evening, when, at the invitation of Mrs. Russell, Blee innocently stirred up a hornet's nest by giving a political talk.

At yesterday's meeting Mrs. Russell, an ardent supporter of the Blee campaign, endeavored to explain the incident as an unpremeditated episode, when she was interrupted with cries of "It's a lie! It's a lie!" The executive firmness of the president of the chamber, Mrs. C. A. Bronough, prevented hostilities, but the wincing are shaking their heads and talk of resignation is rife.

The secretary, Mrs. Ira Stouffer, has publicly announced that the Chamber of Commerce disclaims any responsibility for Mr. Blee's political outburst, characterizing the incident as an inopportune and uncalled for.

Los Angeles Harbor.
COASTWISE TRADE GETS LARGER BECAUSE OF WAR.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE)
LOS ANGELES HARBOR, Aug. 6.—There has been a sudden increase in coastwise travel coincident with the outbreak of hostilities in Europe, for which steamship agents have not been able to account. July was a light month, but August promises to be unusually heavy.

There were nine passenger carriers included in the movements today, and from the smaller steamers between the harbor and San Francisco. Since the Pacific Coast line abandoned the channel run, the only steamer service to and from Santa Barbara is given by the Santa Clara.

Steam schooners fitted with passenger accommodation suffered especially during the past month, particularly between San Francisco and northern ports. Here business is reported better because of the fewer steamers in the trade at the present time. It is expected that even the steam schooners will have all the business they can take care of during this month. The Yosemite, sailing for Portland, and the Santa Barbara, for Wilapa, both had good passenger lists tonight.

When he came here to work he left his family at Long Beach. Some of Clearwater's friends who knew he was married thought he was prone to flirtations, and as a result of one of them he was arrested. Justice Cox fined him $25, gave him a lecture and secured a promise from Clearwater that he would be good.

Weak Lungs Often
Lead to Serious Illness
If you have weak lungs and your system is in trouble, you are more susceptible to serious lung trouble. By the use of Eckman's Alternative many have been restored to health. Read of this case:

331 E. Atlantic Ave., Haddonfield, N. J. "Gentlemen—In the fall of 1903 I contracted a very severe cold which settled on my lungs. At last I began to raise spittle, and a physician then told me I must go to California immediately. At this time I was advised to take Eckman's Alternative. I stayed at home and commenced taking it the last week of October. I began to improve and the first week in January, 1904, resumed my regular occupation, having gained 25 pounds, fully restored to health. It is now seven years since my recovery has been effected, and I cannot praise Eckman's Alternative too highly."

(Signed) W. M. TATEM. Eckman's Alternative is most efficacious in bronchial attack and severe throat and lung affections and upbuilding the system. Contains no harmful or habit-forming drugs. How to Lose Your Tan,
Freckles or Wrinkles
A day's motoring, an afternoon on the tennis ground or golf links, a sunbath on the beach or exposure to a sea trip often brings on a deep tan or vivid orange or more perplexing still, a vigorous crop of freckles. A very necessary thing then is mercurized wax, which removes tan, freckles or wrinkles quite easily. It literally melts off the affected skin—just a little at a time, so there's no hurt or injury. As the skin comes off in almost invisible flakes, no trace of the treatment is shown on an outside of mercurized wax as you do your dressing and use this nightly as a most delicate cleanser. In a week or so you will have an entirely new skin, beautifully clear, transparent and of a most delicate whiteness. Wrinkles, so apt to form at this season, may be easily and quickly removed by bathing the face in a solution of powdered salicylic, 1 oz., dissolved in witch hazel, 4 pt. This is not only a valuable astringent, but has a beneficial tonic effect also.

MANY OBJECT TO STINGERS.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE)
SOUTH PASADENA, Aug. 6.—Millionaire Charles E. Groves, who lives in a palatial mansion at Buena Vista street and Fremont avenue, is in trouble with his "plebeian" neighbors, and it is probable that they will present a petition at the next meeting of the City Trustees declaring that the millionaire is harboring a nuisance in the form of a "mosquito farm" on his property.

Groves' handsome home is at the top of a hill, the grounds extending down the hill to Greville street, and the objection is raised by residents in the vicinity of this street. The gardener of the millionaire has instructions to keep the lawn green, and in consequence it is alleged the water collects at the bottom of the hill, where a fair-sized marsh has been formed, which has proved to be an ideal place for the propagation of mosquitoes.

As Groves lives on the top of the hill the neighbors assert he suffers no inconvenience, and although they have made objections he refuses to give up his prolific mosquito nursery.

He is supposed to be in England now, according to a letter written by him before he sailed from Freiburg for England. This is the third time Dr. Livingston has been present in some great crisis. The first being the San Francisco fire. Two years ago he went to the Quilichua ranch in Mexico to inspect his large holdings there. The war took a sudden turn, the manager of the ranch was abducted for ransom, and the Department of State was appealed to for protection, while relatives here believed the doctor to be in imminent danger.

CORN-GRINDING IMPLEMENTS
FOUND FAR BELOW
EARTH'S SURFACE.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE)
LONG BEACH, Aug. 6.—Enhancing the importance of this city as a site for valuable prehistoric deposits, stone implements probably used for grinding corn were found two feet eight feet below the surface, embedded in the clay banks of the brick yards at Fifteenth street and Chestnut avenue. The implements consist in a slab of hard flinty stone two feet long by inches wide, well worn in the center of one side, and two stones each about fourteen inches long and three inches in diameter, which were probably used as crushers. These were found side by side.

In the last few months many remains of animals of another age have been dug from the clay pits, but this is the first sign of prehistoric human habitation of this section. It is estimated that the corn-grinding machine has lain in the clay for from 1000 to 1000 years. It is supposed that this city was once the site of a large village of Indians of long ago.

RIVERSIDE, Aug. 6.—There were wife and two young daughters, a full adieu and pleasant parting at West Riverside farm in the hands of an agent, Herr Johnson, a member of the general staff of the Prussian army, departed for his native land to take up his duties as a soldier.

The young officer came to this country four years ago, when he was with two of his sons, to settle on a ranch. The unattractive conditions in that country had made him create a wall around himself, and he was unable to keep up his part in the world of the world.

WHEAT SOARS, BUT SLIPS BACK.

MARKET CLOSES WEAK, WITH SMALL NET ADVANCE.

Flurry Is Due to Reported Sale for Export at Montreal—Optimistic Cables About Grain Movements Are Too Hazy About Details to Sell Traders.

CHICAGO, Aug. 6.—On a sudden flurry, but unaccompanied by any heavy trading, the wheat market today in the December and May options rose up to the highest prices of the year. Before any extensive profit-taking could be accomplished, however, quotations had dropped back and the market closed weak at a point 1-4 to 3-4 advance last night. The only basis for the brief stampede appeared to be a report that some wheat had been sold here today to go to Montreal.

Corn wound up 1-8 to 1-7 higher, oats with a gain of 1-4 to 1-3 and provisions at 27 1-8 to 27 1-4 advance. Optimistic cables came from Liverpool and London implying a better prospect regarding the moving of grain, but were hazy in important details, so much that some seaboard owners of wheat made attempts to resell in Chicago houses at several cents under September contracts. On the other hand a rise in cash wheat at southwestern markets offset talk of the railroads making emergency rates to bring wheat back from the Gulf to northern terminal centers.

Public Service: City Hall, Courts.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

City officials received advice from San Francisco yesterday that Oakland has succeeded in getting sufficient signatures on its petition to place its proposed constitutional amendment on city-county consolidation on the ballot next November, in opposition to the amendment proposed by Los Angeles and San Francisco.

The Housing Commission yesterday recommended that the Health Commissioner close three lodging-houses because they have not complied with orders to provide proper sanitation.

A mammoth petition from residents and property owners of Hermosa has been sent to the Council for the immediate restoration of the Avenue 57 bridge across the Arroyo Seco. The Park Commission has endorsed the policy of the Arroyo Seco Association, wherein it urges that riprapping be provided for the banks of the arroyo and that no concrete bridge construction work be undertaken until a comprehensive plan for improvement of the Arroyo Seco is agreed upon.

The fashionable west part of the city sat up yesterday and took notice of a suit in Judge Jackson's court. An 80-year-old woman was thrown headlong downstairs by her daughter when she refused to take medicine of which she was suspicious, was told in Judge Jackson's court.

At the City Hall.

OAKLAND OFFERS OWN AMENDMENT.

THE CITY-COUNTY UNION PLAN OPPOSES LOCAL MOVE.

May City Has Enough Petition Signatures to Place Proposition on Ballot—San Francisco Representative to Confer With Los Angeles Officials as to Campaign.

All is not to be plain sailing for the city-county consolidation amendment to the State Constitution framed by Los Angeles and San Francisco officials. Oakland comes into the field with a proposed amendment of its own on this line—and it has secured enough signatures on its petition to place the proposition on the ballot at the election next November.

City Attorney Stephens received information from San Francisco yesterday regarding this new movement in opposition to the amendment proposed by the two largest cities in California. Robert Newton Lynch, manager and vice-president of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce, will come to Los Angeles today to confer with the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce and the city officials regarding the situation. Plans will be formulated for the forthcoming campaign in favor of the city-county union amendment.

It is understood that this latter instrument explicitly provides that in no case shall San Francisco be permitted to cross the bay and absorb municipal territory on the Oakland side. Originally representatives of Oakland were participants in the conference on drafts of the proposed amendment. Finally, however, they withdrew and Los Angeles and San Francisco proceeded to draft the instrument and place in circulation petitions to get it placed on the ballot at the next general election.

INSIST ON BRIDGE.

AND THEY WANT IT NOW.

Practically all of the property owners and residents of Hermosa are represented on a mammoth petition filed yesterday for presentation to the City Council, asking for the immediate construction of a bridge across the Arroyo Seco at Avenue 57, to replace the bridge taken out by the floods of last spring. It is urged that unless this bridge is provided for in the Hermosa school district will have to walk about two miles to reach the school during periods of high water in the Arroyo Seco.

RADICAL STEP.

CLOSE LODGING-HOUSES.

The Municipal Housing Commission decided yesterday that it would no longer use money to induce landlords to induce delinquents to take their places in satisfactory condition. It recommended to the Health Commissioner that three rood-styled lodging-houses be closed, because of their unsanitary conditions.

In all its previous work the Housing Commission has only ordered the closing of two lodging-houses. The ones ordered closed are No. 845 Wall street, a seven-room building owned by John Ponet, No. 235 East Second street, seventy rooms, owned by the Collins Commercial Company, and No. 61 North Broadway, eighteen rooms, owned by G. O. Grover.

Before this action was taken notice had been served upon the owners to put their premises in sanitary condition, and when this was not done they were cited to appear before the commission to show cause why their place should not be closed. Only one responded to the citation.

LET STATE DO IT.

LAND WANTED FOR PARK.

Various improvement associations and civic organizations are anxious that there be acquired for park purposes, a strip of land on the south side of Exposition Park between Figueroa street and Menlo avenue.

The Vernon and South Hoover improvement Association sent representatives before the Park Commission at its last meeting to request the commission to endorse a plan for the purchase of this strip of land by the city, through means of a budget appropriation, or by the State of California.

The commission decided that it was inadvisable for the city to undertake the purchase of the land at the present time, but stated that it looks with favor upon a plan for acquiring the land through purchase by the State.

The committee was advised to present the subject to the Sixth District Agricultural Association.

BOARD'S POLICY.

AS TO ARROYO SECO.

At the last meeting of the Park Commission it decided that it was the sense of the commission that it should endorse the stand taken by the Arroyo Seco Association in regard to improvements and protective work on the Arroyo Seco.

The association's stand is that the bank protection work should be done by the city and should consist of the heaviest type of riprap, and that the granting of privileges to private individuals and companies to take sand and gravel from the arroyo be discontinued; that the industrial district be not extended further north on the arroyo than Avenue Thirty-five, and that the building of permanent concrete bridges be discontinued until some definite plan have been prepared and accepted for the general improvement of this locality.

The stand of the Park Commission has been presented to the City Council, and is referred to the committee of the whole, which has under advisement the Arroyo Seco situation.

ANCIENT TREES MUST GO.

DECLARE CITY COUNCIL.

The ancient twin sycamores that stand in Avenue Sixty-four, north of Elder street, and near the Church of the Angels, are once more in danger. The City Council insists that they must be removed.

Progress—which in this instance is represented by asphalt pavement.

The Council recently instructed the City Engineer in planning for the paving of Avenue Sixty-four from Meridian street to the northerly city limits, to "remove all obstructions from the street."

But there is an injunction of the court standing against the removal of this tree by the Board of Public Works or other city officials, and the City Engineer hesitated. He sent to the Council for definite instructions as to what he should do about the sycamores.

Then it was passed to the Public Works Committee. Yesterday this committee ascertained that the temporary injunction still stands. Instructions were given the City Attorney to use all means within his power to have the injunction dissolved.

Clubs, societies and individuals have worked to preserve the old landmarks. On the other hand, automobilists and vaudeville troupes occupying the vicinity have urged that it is a constant source of danger from collisions, and that the trees should be removed.

GARAGE STARTS LEGAL BATTLE.

INVADERS A FASHIONABLE HOME DISTRICT OF CITY.

So Suit Is Brought to Enforce Building Restrictions of Years Ago, that Allow Only High-Class Residences—Best Sections Affected by Points at Issue.

The suit was precipitated by the attempt of Robert B. Macintosh and his wife, Elsie D. Macintosh, to establish an electric garage, with apartments on the second floor, at No. 1914 West Washington street.

They let a contract to Gideon Le Sage for the rearing of the building, and also for the erection of a two-story garage, with apartments on the second floor, at No. 1914 West Washington street.

The case of the two plaintiffs was submitted in short order yesterday. They showed that the deed to the property, which was given by Mrs. Macintosh to her husband, provided that nothing but a first-class two-story residence shall be reared on the lot until after 1915, and that the building restriction is violated in the construction of a garage.

The defendants did not close their case yesterday, although they put forth evidence to show that the stand, which declared the property is quasi-business, and furthermore, that by reason of the close proximity of Rosedale cemetery, the property will never be suitable for anything but business purposes.

The case was argued by W. W. Mines, president of the Los Angeles Realty Board; Oscar E. Farish, Peter Nolan and Herbert R. Kels. Each was quite certain in his mind that the property is too valuable for residence purposes, as well as unsuitable.

Behind the litigation lies a question of the binding effect of building restrictions placed in deeds to lots in residence subdivisions; also, whether West Washington street is a public street or whether it is a private street.

The defendants did not close their case yesterday, although they put forth evidence to show that the stand, which declared the property is quasi-business, and furthermore, that by reason of the close proximity of Rosedale cemetery, the property will never be suitable for anything but business purposes.

The case was argued by W. W. Mines, president of the Los Angeles Realty Board; Oscar E. Farish, Peter Nolan and Herbert R. Kels. Each was quite certain in his mind that the property is too valuable for residence purposes, as well as unsuitable.

Behind the litigation lies a question of the binding effect of building restrictions placed in deeds to lots in residence subdivisions; also, whether West Washington street is a public street or whether it is a private street.

The case of the two plaintiffs was submitted in short order yesterday. They showed that the deed to the property, which was given by Mrs. Macintosh to her husband, provided that nothing but a first-class two-story residence shall be reared on the lot until after 1915, and that the building restriction is violated in the construction of a garage.
